Head Teachers Comments

Year 2 class assembly – Yesterday school were treated with the Year 2 class assembly. It is clear that so much fun and enjoyment is happening in their curriculum. They were clear and confident speakers – well done to them all. Special thanks to Miss Hyde, Mrs Flood for organising such a good assembly.

PTA Update – please find the flyer attached to the newsletter regarding our Summer Fair on Friday 11th July. On Friday 13th June children can come into school in their own clothes in exchange to donate a bottle for the bottle tombola.

Safeguarding – hopefully you all have had the opportunity to read the letter sent out yesterday. Keeping all children safe is our priority.

Team points – as we end this short half term, the current standings are 1st O'Brien = 1143, 2nd Whitworth = 1093, 3rd Perry = 1064 and 4th Dhawan = 1052. Going into the final half term of the year – all teams can win!

Have a lovely half term and see you all on Monday 9th June.

Year 5 had their linking school visit them this week. Children had a wonderful day and enjoyed all the planned activities. Children took part in building team towers, collaborative shields, rounders and circle time. Children were very enthusiastic all day. They made new friends and were very caring and respectful towards each other. We also had a picnic on the field, which was the highlight of the day.

Whole School Attendance 93.1% (Target 96%)
